

made," an airport official said. The transport department indicated a skeletal bus service would be provided for passengers. It will make the details on taxis available after a meeting with cab operators on Wednesday.

Kolkata airport had been operational all through the lockdown, catering to multiple cargo flights and repatriation of foreign citizens. When passenger flights resumed on May 28, buses and cabs were faciligo to airport. But transport will be required for flyers landing here. Taxis are essential for passengers with luggage to reach home," the official explained.

A transport department official said buses between the city and the airport will be operated by WBTC. Elsewhere in the city, WBTC will operate a skeletal service for emergency sector workers. Some private vehicles ferrying patients or people working in emergency services will be allowed.
